[REDACTED]

Later, I stopped in and spoke to Sourwine for the purpose of obtaining any material which he may have setting forth the views of Senator John McClellan (D., Ark.) on the Communist threat. Sourwine was unable to provide any such material.

I also spoke to him about S. 782. Sourwine felt we would need all the help we can get on the Senate side but thought it was a lost cause and that the bill would have to be defeated in the House. He said he knows personally of several senators who are concerned with the security aspects of the bill and who approached Senator Ervin in an effort to correct these problems. Sourwine said in each instance, Senator Ervin had rudely rebuffed those who had approached him.

14. [REDACTED] Delivered to Sally Kelley, in the office of Senator George Murphy (R., Calif.), the Raborn interview and the Agency information brochure for use in replying to a constituent, [REDACTED] who had requested information on the Agency.

15. [REDACTED] In follow up to his request, provided a copy of the Director's letter to Senator Thurmond regarding NPT to Mr. Mel Christopher, Assistant General Counsel, Legislation, ACDA, and later in the day provided background guidance on NSC and SIG consideration of the NPT question for Mr. Christopher and Mr. Fisher for their use in finalizing the ACDA response to the Thurmond request.

The Director's letter to Senator Thurmond was handcarried to the Senator's office.

16. [] Met with Mr. Frank Slatinshek, Counsel, House Armed Services Committee, and discussed with him the upcoming Pike Subcommittee hearings on the Pueblo loss. While I was with Mr. Slatinshek, he talked by telephone first with Mr. Kenneth BeLieu, of the White House, and then to Chairman Pike. He reviewed the Committee's request for information from the Navy which had not been honored and from the CIA for the names and official titles of the members of the 303 Committee noting that this information had not been provided but that the Committee was advised that the 303 Committee is established by the White House and release of this information would be proper through the White House. At the conclusion of the conversation with Mr. Pike, Mr. Slatinshek advised that the Chairman was now making a formal request for the Director to appear in open session on Wednesday, 5 March. See Memorandum for the Record for details.

I briefed Mr. Slatinshek on Soviet missile equipment in Syria, French construction of silos, ChiCom construction of attack submarines and Soviet development of surface-to-air short range missile system.

OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Wednesday - 26 February 1969

1. (Internal Use Only - LLM) Met with Representative Edwin Eshleman (R., Pa.) concerning his letter to the Director requesting that the Agency recruit on the Franklin and Marshall campus prior to 3 March rather than on 6 March, the previously scheduled date. I told him that Mr. J. David Esbenshade, Placement Director at the college, told us that Franklin and Marshall College had a full recruitment schedule and we could not come at an earlier date unless there was a cancellation. Mr. Eshleman confirmed our understanding that the school presently was reviewing a possible change in their placement policy. He was quite sure that the policy would be changed and that we, along with a number of Federal agencies, would no longer be invited to recruit on campus. He explained that the president was backing down in the face of the SDS chapter which was threatening violent protests against on campus recruitment by the Agency and others. He said he had no intent of getting the Agency in a corner, but that he was trying to apply psychological pressure on the president to stand fast against the SDS demands and in this connection said he had written a similar letter to the Navy. He seemed to fully appreciate the Agency's position, recognizing that the issue was one for the school to resolve.

2. (Internal Use Only - LLM) Mr. Scott Cohen, in the office of Senator Charles H. Percy (R., Ill.), called explaining that he was reviewing the makeup of the National Security Council and was "shocked" to learn that the Director was not a member and wanted to confirm this. I pointed out the difference between being a statutory member and being present at National Security Council meetings, the difference between the Director's statutory functions and the policy responsibilities of the statutory members of NSC which seemed to abate his "shock."

15. [] Edward Braswell, Staff Director of the Senate Armed Services Committee, called and asked if the Director could appear before the full Committee on Thursday, 27 February, in connection with the Committee's hearings on the military implications of the Non-Proliferation Treaty. He said the Chairman would like the Director to brief on the countries which might be expected to achieve a nuclear capability within the near future. Special emphasis should be placed on those countries which could achieve such a capability and which have not yet signed the NPT, i. e., India. Later, Braswell asked if the Director might be able to appear on Wednesday, 26 February. After checking, I advised Braswell that the Director could appear on Thursday, 27 February, and might possibly arrange to be available on 26 February, if the Committee preferred that date. I explained that there was a National Security Council meeting on 26 February but the Director felt he could excuse himself from that meeting if the Chairman wished him to brief the Committee on that date.

Mr. Slatinshek found it most interesting and said that it would be well to go over it with Mr. Blandford on his return on Monday.
